Service Description

Provides a safe, supportive drug and alcohol residential withdrawal environment for young people aged 12–21 years. Working within a multidisciplinary model, WYCH provides both a medicated and non-medicated withdrawal together with complementary therapies: naturopathy, vitamin supplements and reiki. The daily program includes individual case management, educational groups, music, art therapy, recreational activities and being involved in daily lifeskills. The program's principles are: respect, support, flexibility and fun.

Participation Length

- Up to 15 days.

Interpreters

Yes but requires booking in advance

Specific Exclusions

All clients are reviewed by the Windana Admissions Team for approval to proceed into the residential unit. Every effort will be made to facilitate an admission however in the interest of the young person there are some factors that may prohibit admission.

Who Can Refer

- Service providers; general practitioners/doctors; the young person; or family members can contact the Windana Admissions Team at Head Office to begin the referral process. Referrals can also be accepted via the catchment based central intake teams. To find out which central intake team is in your catchment area, contact Directline on 1800 888 236.
